

Function changes (50503510 V16.1 F05)

Programming the vehicle will produce the following changes in function. Please keep this document with the Owner's Handbook.

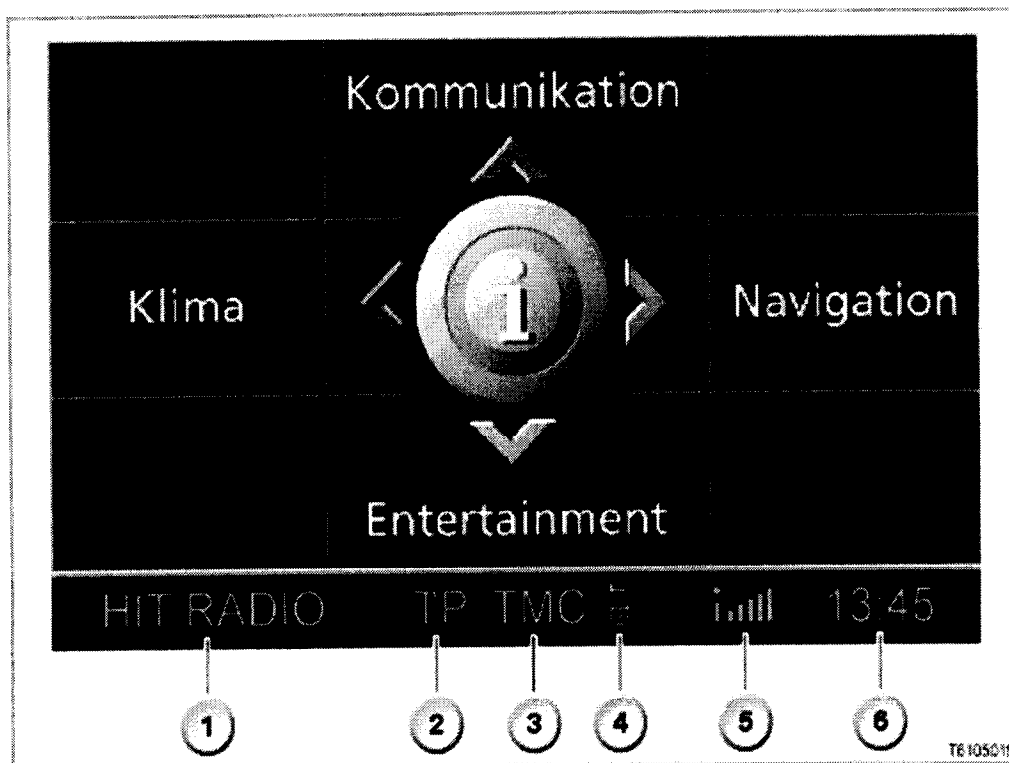

The following changes in function are described:

- Status information faded out when Control Display switched off. Modified displays.
- BMW contact*: Revised menu guidance.
- Navigation system*: Expanded menu in arrow view.
- Navigation system Professional*: New menu in map view. New "perspective" map view.
- Touring: Automatic tailgate actuation*: New function "Set opening height".
- BMW radio Professional: Playback of compressed audio files.
- Service requirements: Modified display if service is not performed on time.

Status information faded out when Control Display switched off. Modified displays.

Status information on the Control Display is now faded out when the Control Display is switched off.

The status information displays have been modified.

Key	Description
1	Display for: - Entertainment - Telephone* in "Communication"
2	Traffic report display*
3	Traffic information display*
4	"Missed call" present
5	Telephone display
6	Time

BMW contact*: Revised menu guidance.

Contact to BMW Service or the BMW Hotline can be established through the menu item "BMW contact".

The submenu can be called up as follows:

1. Press the MENU button.
2. Move the controller to the front to call up "Communication".
3. Select "BMW contact" and press the controller. The menu item "BMW contact" is called up.
4. Select "BMW contact number" and press the controller.

Key	Description
1	BMW contact

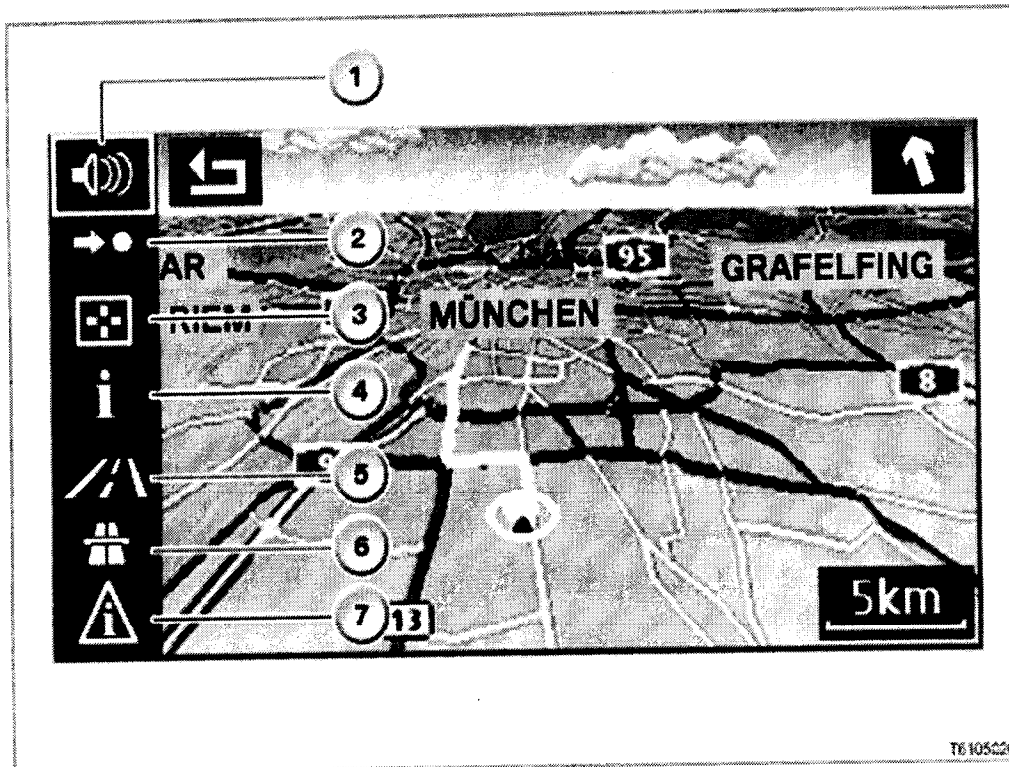

Key	Description
-----	-------------

1

BMW contact number

Navigation system Professional*: New menu in map view. New "perspective" map view.

The map view now has a menu with 7 panels on the left-hand side.

Key	Description
1	Switch spoken instructions on/off
2	Start/finish route guidance
3	Select destination using map
4	Show information
5	Change map view: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- "Map facing north"</li> <li>- "Map facing direction of travel"</li> <li>- "Perspective"</li> </ul>
6	Change route criteria
7	Manually call up traffic information

The new "perspective" map view can also be selected as follows:

1. Select "Navigation" and press the controller.
2. Move the controller to the rear twice to move the marking to the fourth panel from the top. Turn the controller until the required map view is selected.

Key	Description
1	Perspective display

Touring: Automatic tailgate actuation*: New function "Set opening height".

How high the tailgate opens can be programmed.

The setting is made as follows:

1. Call up the start menu.
2. Press the controller.
3. Select "Vehicle settings" and press the controller.
4. Select "Door locking" and press the controller.
5. Select "Tailgate" and press the controller.
6. Turn the controller. The setting is accepted. The panel can be changed.

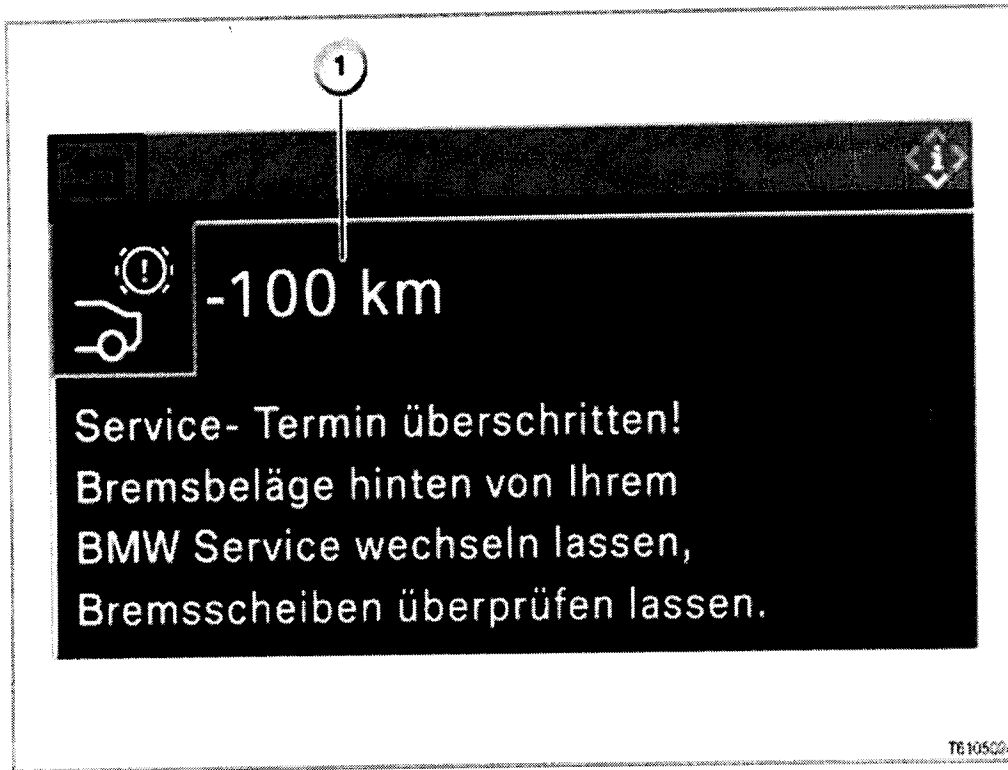

New menu for setting the tailgate opening height

BMW radio Professional: Playback of compressed audio files.

If the vehicle is equipped with a drive, CDs with compressed audio files, MP3 files, can be played by the CD player.

Service requirements: Modified display if service is not performed on time.

The display now includes the distance driven since the service was due.

Key	Description
1	Modified display if service is not performed on time

*indicates special or national-market specifications or special equipment.

Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft