Hi, I have a 2004 BMW 545i (E60) and I wanted to know if you have the angel eyes or the demon eyes available for my car and if you do, how much would it cost? If you don't have one available, when will you be having one available? Thanks!

Could you recommend me which product you have that would be compatible for my car to do the demon eyes? if not, then how about the angel eyes? Would you also know of a shop that could bake my headlights and get the angel/demon eyes installed? I'm located in Los Angeles. Thanks!

Hi, I ordered a set of Predator Basics for my car (2004 BMW 545i, E60) and I was told that Ben Change down in Torrance would be the person to contact about installing the angel eyes. I gave him a call and left several messages but he hasn't replied back yet? Would you happen to know if he's in town or if he works only during the week? Thanks
